May 1, 2009
Gaylord, MI

Co-Sponsors:

This workshop will focus on the reporting requirements for Title III of the Superfund Amendments and Reauthorization Act (“SARA Title III”), also known as the Emergency Planning and Community Right-to-Know Act of 1986, and will highlight the toxic chemical release inventory (TRI) report that is due July 1. The Wastewater Reporting rules under Part 31 of the Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Act of 1994 will also be discussed.

SARA Title III covers facilities that handle hazardous or toxic chemicals. This federal law covers hazardous chemical inventory reports, emergency hazardous chemical releases, emergency planning, and toxic chemical release reporting. The Wastewater Reporting rules require facilities that discharge wastewater to the waters of the state or to a sewer system to submit an Annual Wastewater Report (AWR). All three programs now have web-based reporting applications that will be demonstrated.

Persons responsible for environmental reporting at facilities that handle hazardous or toxic substances or that have wastewater discharges should attend. Michigan business owners, operators, environmental and safety personnel, and environmental consultants can all benefit from this workshop and are encouraged to attend.

All attendees will receive the 7th edition of the Michigan Facilities’ Guide to SARA Title III, Emergency Planning, and Release Reporting published December 2008.
